Congratulations to coach Amber Radford

Special Olympics N.C. (SONC) Coach of the Year 2020!

Amber has been a coach with Special Olympics N.C. for 13 years. She began as an assistant coach in Durham county when she was in high school. She coached in college in Jackson county and has been coaching in Gaston county for the past 9 years.

Amber has coached soccer, softball skills, bowling, basketball, flag football, volleyball, and track and field in her time. She currently coaches volleyball, softball skills, and soccer here in Gaston county throughout the year.

Coach Amber not only volunteers her time on the field with the athletes coaching, but also serves as a committee member, overseeing other coaches and helping plan local events for Special Olympics Gaston County year-round.

Amber continuously strives to do her best for her athletes and make sure that they are successful both on and off the field.

Congratulations on your well-deserved award Amber.

We appreciate ALL of our volunteer coaches who continuously give their all to serve our athletes! THANK YOU for all you do!
